

Local Books Day

The Bookstore in the Abbey Shopping Centre is joining forces with the Partnership to hold a "Local Books Day" on April 14th with artists from the 52 Things to Do book and other local authors stopping by to sign books and tell shoppers about their special interests.

First twenty people to email in for more details will receive a gift voucher towards the purchase of a local book during the event. Email heather.brown@southandvale.gov.uk to be added to the list.
