

Local Excellence Market returns

Local Excellence Market returns: Saturday 24th November sees the return of the hugely popular Local Excellence Market with crafts, vintage/retro stalls and farm producers.

The owls are back as so many people wanted to see them again, and the Army Cadets will be showing their skills to the public.

Abingdon Market Place from 9am to 2pm.

Saturday also sees the start of the Find the Fairy competition with forms available in the market place. Enterprising families can fill in the various names the beautiful fairy is going under this year by looking for her all around town. After Saturday forms are also available in Paul Viney Photography, ER Goff newsagents, Added Ingredients, Fabulous Flowers and Skinny Hippo.

First published on www.chooseabingdon.com on 20th November 2012

