

Community Forum announces special offers at Guildhall

Community Forum announces special offers at Guildhall: At last night's (Sep 26th) Choose Abingdon Community Forum the special package offer for community meetings was unveiled. Local groups will be able to take advantage of a new system that allows pre-approved groups to book rooms at rates as low as £29 for a three hour meeting, including tea and coffee. Cllr Iain Littlejohn introduced the new Guildhall manager and explained further details about the plans for the Guildhall. To find out more about Choose Abingdon's community forum meetings or about how your group can register to get the special community rates at the Guildhall, email heather.brown@southandvale.gov.uk

