

Extravaganza Excitement

Extravaganza Excitement: Saturday 1st December. The Christmas in Abingdon brochure is out on the streets, the posters are up and lots of people are asking difficult questions about what to feed the reindeer, what animals will be in the farm, how tall will the stiltwalkers be, how long will the parade be, what time are the fireworks and (worryingly) who is wearing the Iggle Piggle costume. (Around this time of year most town centre managers start to wish they had gone for a more dignified career choice like toilet cleaning.) The answers to all your Extravaganza questions will be posted on the Chamber website - <http://www.abingdonchamber.co.uk/#!christmas-2012> or contact Paul Townsend on ergoff@outlook.com
