

Fairtrade Market

Abingdon a Fairtrade Town?: content added 15th Feb 2012: There's a rumour that Abingdon has regained its certificate making it officially a Fairtrade Town, following the work put in by the Fairtrade Group (a subcommittee of the Chamber of Commerce). Find out more on March 3rd at the Fairtrade Market to be held on the Market Place 9.30am-3.00pm. Anything that makes Abingdon more marketable is a good move for everyone in the town, whether they deal in products where Fairtrade is relevant or not, so we'll be keeping our fingers crossed that the certificate is on its way and when its confirmed let's all tweet and talk about it!
