

First map up at Rye Farm

First map up at Rye Farm: 22 June 2011: It's been a long time coming....but at last the first town map has been put up at Rye Farm car park. The new maps have been a community effort with input from local people with local knowledge about the town. Press and guests will be invited to a small celebration on Saturday to mark the installation of the first map.

