

Prize winning spree in Abingdon

Prize winning spree in Abingdon: 12th April 2011. When Choose Abingdon realised they had one thousand loyalty card holders now registered on their database, they decided to mark this milestone by holding a prize draw. One card number was drawn at the Good Living Event on March 4th and today the owner of the winning card had a day out in Abingdon, popping in and out of her favourite shops to collect £100 worth of prizes. Winner, Ann Corbett, is a resident of Abingdon and an active voluntary worker. Partnership Manager, Heather Brown, was pleased to see the prize going to someone who is a contributor to the vibrant community life of Abingdon. Ann is involved in the Conversation and Cake informal English language sessions that are held weekly to help newly arrived foreigners in Abingdon to gain confidence in speaking English. Ann chose a lightweight handbag from the Shoe Shop of Abingdon in Bath Street, a top-quality paring knife and some luxurious Booja Booja Chocolates from Added Ingredients on Stert Street and rounded off a hard morning's shopping spree with lunch at The Broad Face on Bridge Street, where she tried out one of their Black Rock sizzling steaks.

First published on www.chooseabingdon.com on 12th April 2011

