The Council's Properties Officer had consulted the Environment Agency and the Vale of White Horse District Council who had confirmed that both sites were viable, and that they would be able to give more detailed feedback on receipt of a pre-application planning application. The Town Clerk, at the recommendation of the Working Party, had placed a small contract on a local firm of architects to prepare two outline designs to accompany the pre-application submission. The architects were currently working to prepare these designs and would help present them to the District Council's planning team. Should a favourable report then be received, the Working Party planned to
